

To whom it may concern,

With her immersion in the design community and passion for learning, Rhea is an inspiration. I had the pleasure of working with her during the conceptual phase of a project. Although we were located in different offices, she was so much on the ball with contributions and discussions that it was easy to forget we weren't in the same room. She is quick to respond to feedback and last minute changes with a contagiously upbeat attitude. Any team would be lucky to have Rhea on it!

To Whom It May Concern;

I am writing to recommend Rhea Belani. Rhea was a student of mine at the Rhode Island School of Design during the winter of 2016, working on self-branding and presentation techniques. Her dedication to improving her abilities and understanding the concepts, planning, and execution drove her to very quickly pick up new skills.

Rhea is an outstanding individual, with great ideas, and has the unique capability to wrap her mind around concepts very quickly. Her attention to detail is within the best that I have seen.

Early in the semester, Rhea earned a reputation as a 'perfectionist' in that her work is always completed on time and to the highest level of finish. Rhea is very bright and willing to put in the extra effort. She has a thirst for learning and works until she understands something and then pushes it further by provoking thought and challenging conventionality.

In addition to being a hard worker and quick learner, Rhea is a warm, kind, and good-humored person. She sits front and center, ready for a good challenge, and asks thoughtful questions.

I have been fortunate to work with Rhea and I have no reservations about her or her abilities. Please feel free to call me at Studio DUNN if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Asher Dunn

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION: RHODE ISLAND SCHOOL OF DESIGN

To whom it may concern:

Im pleased to recommend Rhea Belani. Rhea's work stood out in a class of other very talented individuals. In just about every category a design student can shine, she shines. Her craft, creativity, wit, probing intelligence and sensitivity to form were evident in each and every project she completed. What's more, behind the superlative work there was always the burning desire to connect what she was doing in studio to the world beyond the classroom's walls.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Richard Rose

Adjunct Faculty
